13 This case was opened when plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, wrote a
14 letter to the court. In an effort to protect his rights, it was filed as a new case. Plaintiff
15 was informed that he had not filed a complaint and was given twenty-eight days to do so.
16 He also was sent a notice that he had not paid the filing fee or applied for leave to 17 proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP"); again, he was allowed twenty-eight days to either pay
18 the fee or file the application. A copy of the court's form for applications to proceed IFP
19 was provided with the notice. Twenty-eight days has passed and plaintiff has not 20 submitted any filing or otherwise communicated with the court. This case is therefore 21 DISMISSED without prejudice. No fee is due.

22 IT IS SO ORDERED.
